

Five ways a sensory space can support children's education

1

Encourage independence

2

Practice a range of skills (e.g. hand-eye coordination, motor skills, communication)

3

Support young people to regulate their behaviour

4

Can support emotional literacy lessons

5

Allows children to learn at their own pace

@DotsForChildren

